

Visiting a friend

George lives in Cyprus and Peter in Athens. George and Peter are best friends. They both wear hearing aids.

They chat with each other frequently. Peter has his birthday in two weeks. Peter's friends will organize a surprise party. George will go to Athens for this party.

Time has come. George prepares everything and packs his things. He is excited! He and his parents arrive in the morning at the airport. The party will take place in the afternoon.

However, the weather is very bad! There is a continuous delay of the flight. At the end, the flight is cancelled. George and his parents have to drive home.

